Dear Woodpecker Parents and Guardians,

We are just beginning our exciting learning journey into Ancient Egypt and are already looking forward to discovering all about pharaohs, pyramids, mummies, hieroglyphics and life in Ancient Egypt!

To celebrate everything we will have learnt, we are planning a special Egyptian-themed Dress Up Day on:

Friday 4th December

We are inviting children to come dressed as an Ancient Egyptian on this day. There are a range of inexpensive costumes available online, and there is absolutely no need to buy anything if you'd prefer not to – a simple white T-shirt or sheet could become an Egyptian tunic, with homemade gold jewellery, paper collars or a colourful headdress made from card or fabric.

We would also like to warmly invite you to our very own Ancient Egypt Museum Exhibition at 2:45pm, where the children will have the opportunity to showcase their learning and share some of the wonderful work they have created.

We hope you can join us for what promises to be a fun-filled day as we round off our Egyptian adventure in style!

Best wishes,

Mr Taylor and Mrs Jenkinson
