15th November 2017

Dear Parents

I am sure you are aware that the government places a high priority on the teaching of phonics within primary schools. We place great importance on the teaching and learning of phonics to aid reading skills and would like to invite you to a meeting on Thursday 23rd November from 2.30pm – 3.15pm

During the meeting we will outline the skills children need to become readers and our approach to teaching phonics. We will also offer some advice on how you can support your child at home.

We do not want any parents who have pre-school children to feel they cannot attend the meeting and are happy for them to come along.

Please write down any questions you would like discussed at the meeting.

This meeting will be followed by a class session led by Mrs Yelland for parents of children in Wren class on Wednesday 29th November at 9.00am where you will be able to observe what a phonics lesson looks like.

Yours sincerely

Mrs J. Upjohn
