Dear Parents,

I am writing to inform you that Miss Servant has been offered a fantastic opportunity to use her English as a foreign language teaching skills, working with international students in Portsmouth, and as such will be finishing her teaching assistant role with us at the end of this week.

Miss Servant has worked at our school for the last year, predominately with our children in Woodpecker class but also working with Mrs Ireland at breakfast club. We are so grateful for all Miss Servant has brought to our school during her time with us and will miss her fantastic warmth and calm, but thorough, approach to all she does.

As ever it is our top priority to ensure the best provision is in place for our children and are delighted that Miss Lucy Goman will be joining our team for the remainder of this academic year, supporting learning in Woodpeckers Class. Miss Goman has completed a number of voluntary stints with us during her T-Level in 'Early Years and Education' training and, as such, is well known within school. Miss Stenning has also kindly agreed to diversify her role, and is being allowed out of the office to team up with Mrs Ireland to help run breakfast club.

Miss Servant will be really missed by us all but I am sure you will all join me in thanking her for all she has contributed to school life and wish her all the best in her new and exciting adventure.

Yours sincerely,

Adrian King
